

LANGUAGE OBJECTIVES—6 TYPES CONT.

Lesson Tasks—What language is embedded in a lesson assignment that could be pulled and turned into explicit instruction in language.

Example: I will be able to summarize a text and then teach the main information to a classmate.

Language Learning Strategies—These may include metacognitive, cognitive, and social/affective strategies.

Example: I will justify my predictions to a classmate.

LANGUAGE OBJECTIVES—6 TYPES CONT.

Lesson Tasks—What language is embedded in a lesson assignment that could be pulled and turned into explicit instruction in language.

Example: I will be able to summarize a text and then teach the main information to a classmate.

Language Learning Strategies—These may include metacognitive, cognitive, and social/affective strategies.

Example: I will justify my predictions to a classmate.

LANGUAGE OBJECTIVES—6 TYPES CONT.

Lesson Tasks—What language is embedded in a lesson assignment that could be pulled and turned into explicit instruction in language.

Example: I will be able to summarize a text and then teach the main information to a classmate.

Language Learning Strategies—These may include metacognitive, cognitive, and social/affective strategies.

Example: I will justify my predictions to a classmate.

LANGUAGE OBJECTIVES—6 TYPES CONT.

Lesson Tasks—What language is embedded in a lesson assignment that could be pulled and turned into explicit instruction in language.

Example: I will be able to summarize a text and then teach the main information to a classmate.

Language Learning Strategies—These may include metacognitive, cognitive, and social/affective strategies.

Example: I will justify my predictions to a classmate.